

MOVIE DIRECTOR TO PRISON

H. L. Franklin Gets Ten-Day Sentence for Auto Speeding.

Without the alternative of a fine, Harry L. Franklin, of No. 10 West Forty-seventh street, a moving picture director connected with the Rolfe Moving Picture Studio, Nos. 5 and 7 West Sixty-first street, was today sent to the city prison for ten days on a charge of speeding his automobile by Magistrate House in the Traffic Court.

Franklin, it was alleged, operated his machine in Broadway at the rate of twenty-six miles an hour on Feb. 25. On Feb. 18 Franklin was warned for speeding in Broadway. On Dec. 14 last he was fined $5 for speeding in Riverside Drive.

Why We Have Tired,

Worn-out Nerves and Thin

Blood in the Springtime

(BY DR. S. W. BOWEN.)

At this time of the year most people suffer from a condition often called Spring Fever. They feel tired, worn out, before the day is half thru. They may have frequent headaches and sometimes "pimples" or pale skin and white lips. The reason for this is that during the winter, shut up within doors, eating too much meat and too little green vegetables, one heaps fuel into the system which is not burned up and the clinkers remain to poison the system, clogging up of the circulation, with inactive liver and kidneys.

The best means to oil the machinery of the body, put tone into the liver, kidneys and circulatory system, is to first practise a good house-cleaning. I know of nothing better as a purger than a vegetable pill made up of May apple, leaves of aloe and jalap. This is commonly sold by all druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and should be taken at least once a week to clear the twenty-five feet of intestines.

For an invigorating tonic which will clarify the blood, put new life in the body, sparkle to the eyes, and a wholesome skin, nothing does so well as a glyceric herb extract made from Golden Seal root, Blood and Stone root, Oregon grape root and Wild cherry bark. This can be had in convenient, ready-to-use form at all drug stores, in tablets or liquid, and has been sold for the past fifty years as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By reason of the nerves feeding on the blood, when the blood is pure the nerves feel the effect, and neuralgia or other nerve pains disappear because such pain is the cry of the starved nerves for food.—Advt.

WM. F. SHEEHAN DIES GRIEVING FOR HIS BROTHER JOHN

Noted Lawyer and Politician, Former Lieutenant Governor, Ill for a Year.

William F. Sheehan, former Lieutenant Governor of New York and for many years one of the leaders of the New York bar, died at 3 o'clock this morning at his home No. 16 East Fifty-sixth Street. He had been in ill health for a year and his powers of physical resistance had been lessened by his brooding over the death more than a year ago of John C. Sheehan, his brother, who was for an interim leader of Tammany Hall.

During his illness Mr. Sheehan was under the care of Drs. Samuel Lambert, Henry J. Bugha and T. Hoob. Against their direction, he recently insisted several times on visiting the offices of his firm, Ingraham, Sheehan & Morgan, at No. 14 Wall Street to attend to important cases. His wife who was Mrs. Blanche Neilany of Buffalo, was with him at the end.

For twenty years Mr. Sheehan was a prominent factor in Democratic politics of New York State and for a time his influence was national in scope, particularly in the Presidential campaign of 1904. He entered politics early, becoming a member of the Legislature at twenty-three, Speaker of the Assembly at thirty-two and Lieutenant Governor at thirty-three years of age.

For his debonair appearance he was christened in youth with a political nickname that long clung to him—"Blue-eyed Billy."

In 1911 Mr. Sheehan was the central figure in a long contest for United States Senator. His party was in control of the Legislature and he was the choice of the organization for Senator, but a small group of anti-Tammany Democrats refused to support him because such pain is the cry of the starved nerves for food.—Advt.

ACCUSED OF $10,000 THEFTS. Comedian Used Blank Money Orders for Funds, U. S. Charges.

Neil McDonough, twenty-four years old, good looking and stylishly dressed, who said he was a black-face comedian, was arrested by Postal Inspector C. A. Loran and Detective Dondoro, in the Western Union office at No. 155 Broadway to-day, while waiting for a telegraph money order from a friend in Newark, N. J.

McDonough is charged with the theft on Nov. 5, 1914, of a blank money order book from a Post Office sub-station in Newark, by means of which it is alleged he has stolen from Uncle Sam more than $10,000. He is charged with "job" in the white light district of this city.

A little over a year ago he was sent to the penitentiary from Providence, R. I., for forging a check. All the while the postal inspectors and police were looking for him. The police say that he is wanted in this city for forgery, as well as in Indianapolis, Washington, D. C., and St. Louis.

BEATEN BY HOLD UP MEN. Manufacturer Attacked in Hall by Two Seeking Payroll.

Louis Weinstein, a pants manufacturer, was severely beaten with a blackjack this afternoon by two men who held him up in the hallway leading to his shop at No. 275 Twentieth street, Brooklyn. His assailants escaped. Weinstein believes the men attacked him in the belief he was carrying a large sum of money. Wednesday being pay day in his factory, it happened that his partner drew the payroll money to-day. Weinstein's injuries are dressed by an ambulance surgeon.

BIG WELCOME GIVEN THE FIRST CAVALRY, BACK FROM BORDER

variety to the colors of olive drab uniforms.

The troopers, fresh from a country of changeable temperatures and sand storms, bumped into the first snowstorm they had seen since last winter. The boys were delighted with the snow. Laughing and talking and shouting the cavalrymen crowded under umbrellas and told how glad they were to get home. All were happy because Larry Mares, a caterer of Brooklyn, was at the yards with a staff of his men, serving sandwiches and hot coffee.

Troop K brought home Gladys and Jimmy, two burros, mascots of the troop, to the joy and delight of the kiddies who gathered around them on San Juan Hill. The burros were decorated with colors as was the mascot of the Station Island troop.

Harry Dixon and Ted Squires of Troop K, were envied by all at the yards. Corp. Dixon, promoted on the megalite fields, has a wife, two kiddies, a mother and seven pretty sisters, and they all answered the roll. Then the Squires home guard bestowed an equally fitting welcome on Corp. Ted.

The better part of the morning was passed in being welcomed and then the boys from the border got ready to march to Fifth Avenue and down to the Manhattan Bridge and across to Brooklyn, where a most wonderful reception had been prepared for them.

Complaint was made by the troopers of the poor car service and the delays after leaving Chicago. Part of the floor of one of the cars fell out. The troopers saved themselves by clinging to the seats. Later a coupling pin snapped, leaving the major portion of the train marooned.

Each troop had only thirty-two horses, and the required number was furnished by Squadron A. The men were in the saddle by 11 o'clock and half an hour later the march for the first time began. The line of march was along Fifty-seventh Street to Fifth Avenue, down the avenue to Fourth Street, to Canal and across the Manhattan Bridge. At the University Club, the regiment was reviewed by Gov. Whitman, Major Gen. Wood, Major Gen. O'Han, Mayor Mitchell, Senators Caldwell and Wadsworth, Adm. Gen. Stoenbury and other National Guard officers.

Troop F rode to South Ferry and embarked there for Staten Island. The First went to the border 1,400 strong, arriving at McAllen in the first days of July. The rest of the troops dropped off up the State.

Troop F was met at St. George by a platoon of mounted police, in command of Inspector Cornelius P. Caballero, the Committee of Five Hundred, an artillery company from Fort Wadsworth, the Grand Army posts of Staten Island, volunteer firemen's organizations and thousands of enthusiastic Islanders. Coronations followed in front of Borough Hall and Captain Hunter was presented with an American flag. The troop will be unquitted on Tuesday night.
